

List of EIC Agents

Before you sign any representation agreement with an agency, read the contract and think about the arrangement carefully!

You can get more information about what to expect through the Artists Legal Aid Service, which gives legal advice at almost no charge, <http://alasontario.com>, and the Acting and Modelling Information Service, <http://www.amisontario.com>.

ACTRA does not recommend agencies: the agencies listed here are members of the Entertainment Industry Coalition (EIC), a self-regulating group with a code of ethics for talent and modelling agencies. A (T) next to an agency's name means that it is also a member of TAMAC, the Talent Agents and Managers Association of Canada.
